FORMAL OPENING NOVEMBER 19th

All our members and friends will meet for the gayest and most elegant opening party.
For reservations call now.

PALM DESERT'S WELCOME HOME PARTY

Tickets have gone on sale for the Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce's Nov. 12 dinner party at the Shadow Mountain C. C. climaxing the welcome home — "bienvenidos amigos" — week festivities next month. Chamber directors Ed Dewey, left, in charge of ticket sales; and Dave Maison, co-chairman of the party; flank SMCC manager Rudy Richter as they go over plans for the gala. Palm Desert's own honorary mayor, David Janssen, will head the list of celebrities such as Pat Buttram and Jack Narz, well known from television.

Gourmet Societies — Our member Mr. Charles W. Larabee is working on the establishing of our own SMCC gourmet society. Those interested in fine cusine please call FI 6-6626.

Friday, November 25th, from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m. all members are invited to a tasting of our private label. Join us all for this unusual cocktail party.

The victorious four of the Desert Women's Tennis League march off with another win. They are (left to right) Ann McDougall, Helen Teaze, Myrna Stone and Jacquie Rahn.

Members Mr. and Mrs. Jim Daughtry of Palm Desert with their future tennis champ, 11 day old daughter, Megan at recent tennis matches.

The Art & Dotty Todd Spectacular was just that. All our thanks goes to the Palette Club who was responsible for a smashing success. Shown above are Dotty Todd, Irene Fenton and Art Todd.

FROM OUR GOLF PRO

"Here at Shadow Mountain we are busy preparing for another season of golf. I feel that it will be our greatest. I want to personally welcome all of you back to the Desert. I also wish to announce that I have made arrangements with Jack Petri to stock the Golf Shop in clothing. Mr. Petri has been successful in the clothing line in such shops as Tamarisk, Indian Wells and Colorado Springs Broadmoor Country Clubs. We have a very attractive line of merchandise for your selection. The Pro Shop has been newly carpeted. I am sure that you will like our 'New Look'."

Moon Mullins

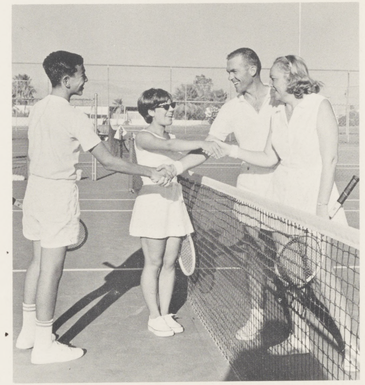
Room reservations for the coming season starting from mid-December are coming in from everywhere "like mad." Make certain that your visiting friends and relations will find accommodations. Reserve their room or suite as early as possible.



Our friends from the Newport Beach T. C. enjoyed their interclub match with our tennis group. Shown above are Joe Bernie and Lindy Blare of Newport, Dr. Aloys D. Heyen of Rancho Mirage and Miss Dot Fowler of Newport.

Mr. Bradstreet reports to all as manager of the brand new Club Cellar, offering for your convenience fine spirits at tremendous savings.

Jack Atlas, Columbia Pictures Exec., seems as though he's having a tough time getting those trade secrets from Fred Brown, Club Steward.

The Gold Pennant Gourmet Society held their Desert Safari at SMCC hosted by members J. Louis Bruce, M.D. and Arthur Crowley. The event was so well received that the club has already made plans for their 1967 affair here. A tribute to our fine cusine and staff who made this event so successful.
